Kurt received his Bachelor's Degree in Economics from Westminster College, a nationally recognized liberal arts college in Salt Lake City, in 1989. He immediately entered the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law where he graduated with his Juris Doctor in 1992. While still a law student, Kurt began demonstrating his aptitude as a future trial lawyer in mock trial competitions and while interning at the Denver District Attorney's and Arvada City Attorney's offices. Under the Student Practices Act, Kurt was allowed to try traffic and misdemeanor cases while a third year law student and prior to taking the bar examination Kurt had already successfully tried over a dozen jury trials and a hundred bench trials.

After graduation came jobs as a Deputy District Attorney at the 1st Judicial District, District Attorney's office and as a Senior Associate at another prominent insurance defense firm. While in both positions he quickly built what has become a prolific trial resume, notable for the sheer volume and diversity of trial experience, combined with an exceptionally high success rate. He's also had more than his share of high profile cases covered by local and national media, including television and radio appearances and interviews. As a Senior Attorney here, Kurt specializes in all areas of insurance defense related litigation, commercial litigation and Insurance Fraud Investigation.
